Formal Education

- 2017–2021 Ph.D. in Economics, Maastricht University, The Netherlands.
As a Ph.D. student at Maastricht University I do research on the link between labour market information and the choice of study programmes by prospective students.
- 2016–2017 MSc in Economics of Management and Organisation (cum laude), Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands.
- 2013–2016 BSc in Economics & Business Economics, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands.

Additional Training

- 2017 Summer School on Experimental Economics, Sun Yat-sen University, Guangzhou, China.

Master Thesis

Title Allocative Externalities in Auctions
Supervisor Dr. Vladimir Karamychev
Description For my master thesis I researched how standard sealed bid auctions and the Vickrey Auction perform in terms of efficiency and revenue in presence of allocative externalities.
Grade 8.9

Bachelor Thesis

Title A Time-Consistent Model for Procrastination
Supervisor Dr. Jan Heufer
Description For my bachelor thesis I created a theoretical model that explains procrastination for a time-consistent agent. This model differs from the often used model of Quasi-Hyperbolic Discounting in that it explains why and when an agent will stop procrastinating.
Grade 9.0
